Sequoyah,

As for the response to Ms. Locklear...no recommendation really, other than it would be in their best interest to present their side (Tejon's argument for admin error) to the Hill and on their reaffirmation.

On our end... I am still waiting for what we can deliver to the Hill other than the press release last week. I have been asked for the letter from AS-IA to Tejon leader, and also the analysis that we did that led us to decide to reaffirm. This request is from Congressman Young's staff on the House Natural Resources Subcommittee on Alaska and Native American affairs.

I would like to give some background of the tribe to the staffer, i.e. located in Wasco, CA, number of tribal members, land or no land currently held in trust. What is our authority to go down the route of admin error, and what were the other decisions for admin error previously done?

What is the likelihood that I can deliver this type of information to the Hill? And how soon?

Darren

Hi Darren,

This e-mail is privileged. Please continue to include SOL.

Do you have advice on how I should respond to Arlinda Locklear's request? (She is the attorney for Tejon)

FOIA5A

In a separate e-mail yesterday, she asked me about when the Indian Entities list would be updated in the Federal register.

So that you know, Darren, the plan of action on how to proceed on requests for information about Tejon

I am including other on this e-mail who Arlinda Locklear might be reaching out to, as well, in case they are getting a similar request from her.

Thanks.

Good morning, Sequoyah. I'm curious (if you can tell me...) whether the AS-IA office has received any congressional inquiries about the Tejon decision. And obviously, if there is anything I can do/give you to assist in responding to any inquiries, would be happy to do so.
Arlinda.
